

Okhandiar get US Congress certificate for entrepreneurial skills

PUNE: Amit Okhandiar, chairman and managing director, and wife Vazi, head of technology, mLogica Inc, a specialist IT firm based in Pune and Irvine, southern California, have received a certificate from the House of Representatives of the US Congress. The Okhandiar received the certificate in recognition of their entrepreneurial skills and community service on January 26, to coincide with India's 57th Republic Day celebrations in southern California. In a statement released here by mLogica, the Okhandiar have also received a commendation and certificate of recognition/appreciation by the Sheriff of Los Angeles County, Speaker of the Assembly of California Legislature Assembly and by the Supervisor of the County of Los Angeles. mLogica is a consulting firm, specialising in database management, decision support systems, mobile and embedded technologies and enterprise software development. It was set up in 2004.